

Dr Kiran Frey is a psychiatrist working part time with a passion for developing nonprofit organizations into worthwhile endeavors that become the life blood of societies. She has over 25 years' experience in working in leadership roles at nonprofits. She founded an award-winning chess program with her son and Grandmaster in her hometown. She is also the author of a book about her work, "Raising Social Entrepreneurs", which describes her history of fostering nonprofit work among youth. She is an ardent advocate of humanitarian work with animals, people, and the environment. She firmly believes that the non-profit, "Friends of Filbert" can make a difference in how people think of stray dogs and contribute towards their humane treatment. Humanitarian work can be intellectually and emotionally challenging as it is wildly creative and unstructured and teaches teamwork, cooperation and understanding across socioeconomic disciplines.
